

Housing Food Account

for food service and laundry in University Residence Halls

Each student living in the University Residence Halls has a Housing Food Account, a debit account accessed with the UW-Madison ID card / Wiscard program.

What can I purchase with a Housing Food Account?

- Food and snacks at all University Housing Dining Services facilities (dining rooms, coffee houses, carryouts).
- Delivery service to residence hall rooms.
- Small grocery and convenience items.
- Laundry in the University Residence Halls.

How can I find out my current balance?

The current balance is listed on every receipt from food purchases; students can also check the balance online after setting up a personal password < www.wiscard.wisc.edu > .

What happens at the end of the year?

Students automatically receive a refund check for a Housing Food Account balance $20 or greater; balances less than $20 are transferred to the Campus Cash Account at the end of the academic year and will remain available to you as long as you are a student at UW-Madison.
